

The Ten Year Career Resources Chapter Nine: Become A Lifelong Learner

Important Takeaways from Chapter Nine:

If there is one thing about the most successful, wealthy, and fulfilled; it is that they realize that they do not know everything and are constantly striving to continue their education and grow.

The great ones know that their education begins after leaving high school or college and never really ends.

Make a commitment to yourself that you will continue your education with some of the different resources outlined in the book and then continue on as a lifelong learner.
